I Saw It

Once I saw a yellow fish,
under the deep blue sea.

Then I saw a fat green frog,
who jumped right over me.

Next I saw a little red bird
just flying around his house.

Then I saw an orange cat,
eating one black mouse.

And I saw a pretty white dog,
riding in a car.

Then a funny purple bug,
he could walk so far.

There is one thing I did not see
among so many things

I'd be glad if I could say

I'd seen a cow with wings!
